

RESOLUTION NO. 8059

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE
CITY OF ORANGE COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING
PIERCE LYDEN FOR BEING THE 1992 RECIPIENT
OF THE "GOLDEN BOOT" AWARD AND DECLARING THE 15TH OF AUGUST 1992 PIERCE LYDEN DAY IN THE CITY OF ORANGE.

WHEREAS, Pierce Lyden, a resident of the City of Orange for over 30 years, has enjoyed a long and distinguished career as a character actor and stuntman, including over 400 movies and serials, becoming the premier "Bad Guy" of American Western films; and

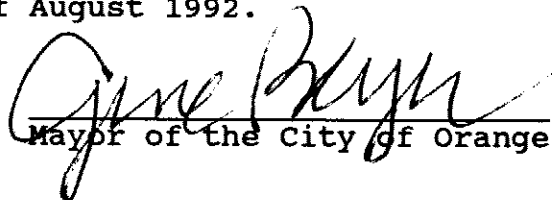

WHEREAS, Mr. Lyden has made an important contribution to motion picture arts, while raising a close-knit and successful family, including among the children and grandchildren produced from his more than 42 year marriage, a law school dean, a surgeon, an assistant district attorney and a psychologist; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lyden's contributions to western film art and history are to be recognized on August 15, 1992, by presentation of the prestigious Golden Boot Award for lifetime achievement in western films as selected by a committee of Western stars and experts.

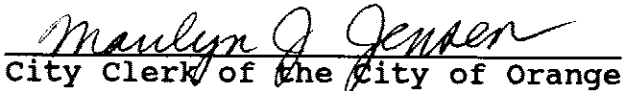

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that August 15, 1992, is hereby declared to be Pierce Lyden Day in the City of Orange in honor of this outstanding member of our community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that in recognition of the honor he has brought upon himself, his family and our City by his life of striving for excellence, the City Council of the City of Orange hereby congratulates Pierce Lyden for the honor of receiving the 1992 Golden Boot Award, and thanks him for the contributions he has made to the motion picture industry and to our community.

ADOPTED this 11th day of August 1992.
